Story

--- "Angelic Lie"

The greatest liar in Heaven, the angel Azazel. Though possessed of exceptional beauty and intelligence, his unforgivable acts eventually incur the wrath of God. In the name of training, Azazel's power is sealed and he is cast down to the human world.

He seeks a way to return to the celestial realm, but to his dismay, along with his angelic powers, his ability to lie has also been locked away. Though Azazel tells people the truth about his identity, his claims are so unbelievable that they all dismiss him as a liar. While drowning his sorrows in drink, he meets someone. She introduces herself as Elena and claims to be a treasure hunter.

Elena is searching for the legendary treasure, the Ring of Solomon, which is said to have the power to control any angel or demon. The artifact had gone missing a long time ago but has recently reappeared in the collection of a wealthy tycoon named Federico. Azazel offers his help, thinking that the power of the ring might allow him to return to the celestial realm. The two vow to work together and begin devising a plan to steal the ring.

But another suspicious figure is lurking in the shadows around Federico. The demon Flauros also seeks to claim the power of the ring. Meanwhile, in response to this development, the celestial realm further complicates the situation by dispatching the archangel Raphael to the human world.

Will Azazel find triumph in this web of deceit involving humans, angels, and demons? Can he regain his powers, and return to Heaven? Enjoy this celestial farce with a dash of fantasy and romance.
